“ I am so sorry for your loss. My favorite memory is one day he came in to our NAPA store with his granddaughter(I believe it was Tara) and she was telling us about her camping trip with grandpa and grandma and she got sick and puked her purple popsicle. She told it so seriously that it was funny. You could tell by the way Steve watched her he was very proud of her.

“ Ron and send our condolance to his wife Janice and family we always thought a lot of Steve. When he was the Odon Town Marshal each Christmas we started getting him a little something, he was always so shocked we thought of him at that time. He visited in our home quite a few times he was always a very good Marshal he will be greatly missed.
