My heart goes out to you as I know what a kind and gentle person Steve was through school, and by reading others' posts, throughout the rest of his life. “ Rarely seeing Steve in recent years since he had retired but when I did run into him, we always stopped to chat briefly. Knowing Steve practically all my life, he was truly a nice guy and very well liked in the class of 78. Please know that many of the classmates have learned about his passing and very saddened by the news. I'll miss waving to him on the road! Judy Wise

“ To Joe and all other members of Steve's family. I knew Steve from the gate at Crane and saw him at ET a few times. He also worked with my step-dad Hop Neidigh. He always seemed to be happy and smiling and an all-around good guy and by the other entries here, he made that impression on a lot of people. I've never seen the guest book have so many personal messages written about someone. It's a testament to how he spent his life here and how everyone saw so much good in him. He, obviously, will be missed. Angel and family

“ We are so shocked to hear that Steve has passed away. Terry (Hop) worked with Steve at Neidigh and Weddle Construction Companies and considered Steve a great co-worker. One day, he rode up the driveway on his bike and brought a dozen ears of sweet corn. It was delicious and it was decided that only a sweet person could grow corn that sweet. Our thoughts are with Steve's family during this difficult time. Farewell brother, from Hop and Dianne Neidigh

“ Calvin and I worked with Steve at both Neidigh Constr. and Weddle Brothers, and he is one of the greatest guys we have ever known. Not only did he have a great work ethic, he was a sweetheart that I always looked forward to working with. He always had a story: his dogs, his Harley, his tomatoes...

“ I am so saddened to hear of Steve's death. I went to High School with him, "Class of '78" and remember him as a very sweet guy. He always had a smile on his face and was well liked by his classmates. We had a class reunion once and all the girls were wondering who the tall, handsome "mystery" man was. He wasn't saying anything just walking around smiling. We were all whispering, 'who's date is that handsome guy?'...'is he a party crusher?' Near the end of the evening Steve finally went around saying hello to all the girls! Saying "It's me Steve Haywood." The girls almost fell out of their chairs! Little Stevie Haywood had grown up into a handsome man! Tonight I talked to some of the girls that were there that night and we still remember what he was wearing! Jeans, a white western shirt and cowboy boots! That was 27 years ago! Guess he made quite an impression. Thanks for the memories Steve. God Bless You.

“ I humbly offer my deepest sympathy to Steve's family. We worked together on a number of construction jobs throughout south central Indiana years ago and I always enjoyed being around him. Whether it was sand blasting a bridge deck, jack hammering out old concrete or pouring new concrete; whatever it was, Steve always made those tasks a little easier to endure.
I ran into Steve about 6 or 7 years ago and he was the same hard-working, good-natured guy I remember working with 20 years earlier. I will always remember Steve "E" as a good man and a good friend. God bless you, brother.
