“ There are no words to express how sad we were to hear of your mom’s passing. When we saw each other we always caught up on what all of our kids and grandkids were doing. You all were the joy of her life. We bonded back in the early football days, and wouldn’t have been able to accomplish what we did without her help. She sat through many, many meetings with us trying to convince the school that it was a good thing to do. Her presence helped us establish credibility. We’ll never forget her unwavering support and friendship. May the good memories of her guide you in the days ahead. Much love from both of us!

“ Dear Mandy, Jennifer, & JB,

Denise and I have so many pleasant memories of being a part of your family as we grew up. We loved sleepovers at your house and swimming in your backyard pool. Having friends from church the same age meant a lot.

It doesn't seem possible that six decades have gone by so quickly. But now more than ever, we rejoice in a loving Savior that has made eternal life possible and a heavenly reunion someday for those we loved here.

Prayers and thoughts are with you. . .

“ Levi, Dane, Nick -
Every time I spoke with your mother, she was so excited to talk about you - where you were studying, living, working, and about your babies. Your lives brought her so much joy! She was your biggest fan!

I am so sorry for your loss and will keep you all in my prayers.

“ I have lots of memories of my classmate. She was always the fastest in freeze tag. In fourth grade, we took turns sitting by her at lunch. I mean, we had a schedule. My mother, cafeteria Nazi, put an end to that. Sindy would gag if she saw anyone spit. Band trips, slumber parties, Apple Festival, and ballgames. Lots of ballgames. You may remember Sid cheering but she also played ball a couple of years. We were playing Vincennes Rivet our freshman year and they were beating the crap out of us. I remember running back on defense and seeing Sindy, behind the play, kicking one of their players in the shin as hard as she could. She turned, smiled, and rejoined the rest of us leaving her opponent hopping one foot. She and I couldn't stop laughing. Love you, Sid. Spirit of.
