“ I had the privilege of working around Terry for a short time at Indiana Rail Road. Terry made an impression on me as a first-class railroader, and a kind, humble and easy-going soul. I will always remember forget his joyful portrayal of "Christmas Mouse" on the Santa Train and the way he lit up when talking about his grandchildren. He left us far too soon. God willing, we'll all greet him again when we follow in our time.

“ *My symapathies and prayers with you during this time of loss and sorrow.
I worked with Terry at INRD. He was one of the best managers I have had the pleasure to work with. He was a hard worker, a good man, and a friend.
May he find rest and comfort in the arms of the Lord.*
