“ I am so sorry I did not find out about Ike's passing until after the service or I would have been there.

Ike was a very important person in my life and I looked up to him. He filled some very important gaps for me. I count myself lucky to have known him.

To me he lived respected and died regretted. It is hard to write when you are holding back tears.

God be with all of you now and in the days to come.

Oh my heart is so saddened, Ike was always so sweet to me anytime you seen him he had a smile on his face he didn't judge you by your last name or how much money you had. Heaven has definitely gained a great man. You will be greatly missed Ike and thank you for all you done for our country. Sherry Patton.
