“ Vera, the last of those wonderful people of that age. Mom and Dad spoke with fondness, all the good times they had. She will be missed. I think she was the last of that HS class with Dad and Mom. Condolences to your family and sweet memories. Kate Wright Kaiser

“Mary Ellen and family, I don't think I will be able to attend the funeral so this will have to do.

Living next door, on Washington Street, the Jackson Family and our lives were entwined. My mother and her were best of friends. Mary Ellen and Bonita babysat me as child. Bill and my brother were also the best of friends.

I remember Bill, their old garage, and their dog, Bullet or as I called him Bullet Jackson.

Claude and I would go to Solsberry to get Christmas Trees for our homes. Vera made Christmas that most special of times for me. Claude and Vera would come to our house on Christmas Eve. I still have the tie she gave me for my 15th birthday.

She gave me the picture of the flowers in the vase that hung in her dining room. That same picture hangs in our dining room. In fact one just like it is hanging on the wall of the living room of the Corleone family in the movie The Godfather.

I grew up into adulthood and Vera was always a part of my life. She was at our wedding, my mother's funeral, and Joshua's Eagle Scout Court of Honor among others. We laughed together, we cried together, we shared happiness, joy, heartache and tragedy all together.

I know that I am a much better person because of her and how lucky I was to have all of the Jackson family in my life. Her memory will never fade. She will always be with me. When we would talk I always made it a point to tell her "I love you." and she would always reply "I love you too hun."

As I write through a sea of tears, one thing is true, love never, never, never dies, it transcends the grave. I look forward to joining her on the other side.

Let the memories be happy ones. God bless you all.
