“ My Aunt Vickie was a sweet soul. She was a people person who could talk to anyone, young or old about anything with ease. It’s interesting when you’re young you don’t realize what a gift it is to have that kind of charisma, but as you get older it becomes apparent very few genuinely have it-Vickie did. She had a witty sense of humor and an infectious laugh. Throughout my years I had the honor of hearing this laugh, witnessing this charisma and being a part of her life. I’m so thankful for that. Missing her, and thinking of Gina (for whom she passed on her charisma) and the boys, for although she loved her fur babies, it was obvious who held her heart

“ Vickie was always quick with a laugh, a joke or a smile. She had such a joy about her. As kids we were blessed with her presence on the softball field, always encouraging and sharing her love so freely. She was the kind of woman that every kid wants to be around. So glad to have known her. Much love to her beautiful family <3
