“ *I am just at a loss, warren was a fixture
In my life , we did so much together growing up he was the typical little brother following me everywhere.
He was a very special person, always smiling and glad to see you.
This isn't goodbye, just until later, I know you are in much better place now able to understand the things you might not have before.
I will always love you and cherish your memory.*
