“ Bill was a good friend, a good athlete although he never played organized sports. We played basketball outside and he gave me encouragement to make me a better player. I was a member of the Jasonville class of 1957 which had 14 boys and 10 girls. Bill was a member of that class.-----Shelby Foster

Bill was a good friend thru the years. His love of elegant glass it's maker was unreal. Knowledge that he shared and remembered was vast.
