“ Bill was one of the most dedicated servants of the Lord Jesus Christ I have ever met; what a role model he was in this regard. How deeply this man loved Jesus cannot be captured by words. His love of God just seemed to flow forth from his person, and ever so warmly and tenderly and positively influenced all aspects of his humble life.

I treasure and am thankful for the countless conversations we had over the years, oftentimes talking about and rejoicing in God's handiwork in the universe. In this respect Bill was unparalleled in his insights into the sciences--something he was always quick to praise and thank God for--and I am blessed to have had the privilege to learn from this great thinker and lover of Jesus Christ.

You are sorely missed my dearest friend, and although the world is a little emptier without you now, heaven, even the great God of heaven, is blessed with you there, and my heart rejoices for you there in the bosom of your beloved Jesus Christ...
