“ I remember all the great smiles and the genuine love Uncle Bill had for his family. I have such great memories of visiting Uncle Bill and Aunt Joan. One of my favorite memories is when Uncle Bill took me and my brothers out to the barn and picked up a piglet to let us hold. Then he winked at us and told us we would surprise Aunt Joan. He stuffed the piglet in his jacket pocket. Once we were in the house, he pulled the piglet out of his pocket. I don't know who squealed the loudest, the piglet or Aunt Joan. Uncle Bill just laughed and winked at us and told her it was our idea. Of course, he was told to take the piglet back to the barn where it belonged.

I will miss Uncle Bill. I have such great memories that I hold very dear. I hope over my lifetime, I leaved great memories for those I love for that is what we hold onto after someone has passed. I love you Uncle Bill. Rest in peace.

Love always, Mary Beth Richardson-Reese.
