III, John Wnek, Oswego, III, Alex Koulouris, Lockport, III

6 Great Grandchildren

He is preceded in death by his wife Carol Scalfaro, daughter Cynthia Orlove and Grandson Charles Anderson III and his parents.

Bill was a retired Custom Home Interiors Business Owner, a Korean war veteran and an excellent poker player. He was an original Stand Up Guy with a witty sense of humor and an above average intelligence. He loved to read, talk politics, tell jokes, and most of all entertain people with his card tricks. Although a tough guy exterior he had a soft heart for kids. He would often carry stuffed animals and candy to give away in restaurants, and visit the children's Hospitals with gifts whenever he got the chance.

Burial arrangements are pending.

“ Dad Scalfaro,

I just found out. Thank you for being part of my childhood as well as all the other kids in the neighborhood that you and Mom Scalfaro opened your door too.

Give Mom, Cindy and Chuck a hug from me.
