“ I want to extend my sympathy to the family at this at the passing of Bill.

I only remember meeting one time as a younger child. He had stopped by my family home in Loogootee to visit my dad. You see, my dad, Carl Bohn, and Bill were Army buddies in the 3205th Quartermaster Service Company. They went across the English Channel into Normandy together. A few years ago I called Bill wondering if I could spend a few hours with him getting to know him better and hear about when he and dad were together in the service. Unfortunately, that day never quite happened. I am saddened that Bill was the last link to my dad's service time as my dad passed away in 1977, and Kenny Page, Bob Yoho, Carl Burch and Bill Seals are all gone too.
