“ Carol, Nancy & Mary Alice,

Heyyyyyyyy Gurls!!!! This is Dixie..... You girls are in our prayers. Sorry we are unable to make it tonight or tomorrow but Momma (June) will be 82 in July and don't get out in this weather much & I have to be in Indy tomorrow at a Endocrinologist been waiting to get in over more health issues. We love you girls & are praying for our family.

Carol.....Tell Lisa & Rodger I'd love to see them.

*Love & Hugs,

“ I can honestly say..I never heard Aunt Maxine raised her voice at anyone..I am sure we gave her many reasons to growing up..I remember when they got the basement done on their new house & lived in it we would run up & down the steps to get kool-aide or lemonade..she would kinda yell but not in a loud voice to stop running on the steps only because she was so afraid we would fall & hurt ourselves. The wonderful times my mom & my Aunts Maxine, Dorthy, Wanda & Marjorie would all gather at Grandmas & can food for the winter..everyone gathering on Sunday for picnic down the hill sometimes or down at Mandys. Sunday nites everyone was sitting at Pleasant Ridge for Church. It made me feel so good couple yrs ago when I went to church on Easter & she said she was glad to see me there..Nancie, Mouse & Carol my heart hurts for you all, but take comfort that she was tired & ready to go home..she missed your dad so much..& now we shall miss her..I love you
